

Mr Butler has been a school governor for around seven years. He initially became a governor as a parent, but also wanted to give something back to the school. He has a background of voluntary youth work and has extensive building knowledge.