

Miss Ryan has been a governor at All Saints for six months. She has a Masters in Education Leadership from the University of Toronto and is passionate about the well-being, success and future of children in the All Saints Community. Miss Ryan has always been interested in the governance and leadership of schools.