

Mrs Bentley became a parent governor out of a keen interest in understanding how her children's school is run. She is also interested from the point of view of her own occupation as a Teaching Assistant at Our Lady & St Swithins.