Homework Projects

Thanks to all parents who get involved in these projects; some ideas are amazing. Please don't feel you have to come up with a masterpiece – the process is the most important with the pupils using their study skills to come up with a creative response to the challenge. We will try and create opportunities next half-term for you all to see the results of the work.

Y6W

Miss Williams will be working at Four Oaks Primary School for seven weeks after half-term, so Mr Farrell will be taking the class for this period.

Costumes

Every year, each year group launches a topic such as Greeks, Romans, Africa etc and each time, parents rise to the occasion with a fantastic variety of imaginative costumes.

All Saints Parents' Association have suggested that after half-term, parents may like to donate their old costumes which could then be 'hired out' to subsequent year groups for a nominal donation.

This would save the expense of a new outfit every year and also raise funds which will ultimately be spent on subsidising trips and treats for the children.
