Dear Parents

Languages and Cultural Festival

Next week, we celebrate languages and cultures from around the world throughout our curriculum. French, Spanish, Arabic and Mandarin all make an appearance throughout the week. There's the 100-word French Challenge, don't forget, and French food-tasting for all. Our kitchens will be providing themed menus for the children each day.

On Wednesday, we are hosting an Art Exhibition in the Hall from 3:10pm – each child has prepared a piece of work which will be professionally mounted. Should you wish, parents can buy this for £5 - £4.50 goes to the company that is preparing the exhibition and Zoe's Place. Fifty pence will go to the Parents' Association. Homework projects will also be on display – thanks to parents who have assisted their children with these. Come along and enjoy!

Then on Thursday, there will be assemblies at which all children will perform French songs: Early Years and KS1 assembly starts at 9.30am and KS2 assembly starts at 2pm. The winner of the 100-word French challenge will also be announced.

Tea and Tunes

The next 'Tea and Tunes' is scheduled for Tuesday 19th June at 4pm. All pupils are invited to attend with their parents – a fabulous opportunity to hear live music in the school, including from our own pupils. Refreshments will be served.

Book Bus

Wellness Week: 26th June

Looking ahead to our Wellness Week, all children are busy designing flags for our new houses which are to be launched that week. The houses – Chongqing, Flanders, Rouen and Waterloo - are explained a little more on the website on our school blog.

More about Wellness Week to come next week.

Daisy UK

Thanks to Dave and all at Daisy UK for their workshops for Year 4 today – they went down really well. Why not get involved and help Daisy UK – they are a local charity on Breck Road helping people who are visually impaired, preventing hate crimes and encouraging community cohesion. We're delighted Dave will be attending our Pupil Conference on 6th July.

FREE Rug Making workshop

LFC have teamed up with New Park Primary School to offer this intergenerational activity. Their pupils have been taught how to make rag rugs and they want to share their new skill with our local older people in order to reduce social isolation.
